

AI Automobile Management System

Vehicle Management System is a AI system developed by implementing Bayesian network. The system works alongside existing automobile engine management system and provide additional functionality and better system management for improved stability and longevity of the vehicle.

- Input Nodes
- Processing Nodes
- Output Nodes
- Incorrect Input Node

